Dear Garrison

Permit me to introduce to you Mme C. Garnand Launoy of Paris, a lady who is travelling in this country with the view of studying its institutions, & manners & customs, and who has been sojourning for some time in this cit.

Those of us who have had the happiness of making her acquaintance, have had much pleasure in her societ & hold her in high esteem.

Ms<sup>r</sup> has written to this country has no particular reference to slavery. She is deeply interested in this question and is a true abolitionist. She took an earnest part in the efforts in her own country which led to the abolition of slavery in Guadeloupe & Martinique.

Madame Gamand intends to make a short tour in Boston and has expressed a desire to become acquainted with yourself & a few other of the prominent ~~abolitionists~~ friends of the cause. She will take letters of introduction from Mr Sumner & Mrs Mott; if none of them should happen to be to Wendell Phillips or

Edmund Quincy, I hope you will find an opportunity of introducing Madame G. yourself, to these distinguished advocates of Freedom, - that is if you can do so without the least inconvenience to yourself.

Making no apology for the liberty I take, but desiring to be remembered kindly to Mrs Garrison

I remain

Your friend truly

Wm. Allen
